Golden Wedding Anniversary.

An event of very much more than usual interest was the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. Porter Butts which was celebrated at North Hyde Park Wednesday, Sept. 26th.

Many invitations had been issued and about 300 were present. The exercises were held in the hall adjoining the hotel which had been very prettily decorated for the occasion with autumn leaves, wild clematis and hydrangeas, etc. The exercises were of a very informal character. During the evening dancing was enjoyed, music being furnished by the Gihon Valley orchestra.

The very large number of people from all over the country who came to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Porter Butts on this occasion testified to the esteem in which they are held by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

Although the invitations expressly stated that no presents were expected, many were received. Among the handsome gifts were a five o'clock tea service, including gold lined cups and spoons from Gihon Valley Grange; gold bead necklaces from brothers and sisters of Mr. Butts, silver teapot, cream jug and sugar bowl, gold lined china salad bowl with gold spoon, several gold coins and many choice bouquets.

Among the relatives present were: Mrs. Ullie Walker, Misses Blanche and Doris Wood, Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. Lucia Hutchins, Waterbury, Mrs. Homer Stearns, Miss Ellen Stearns, Burlington; Miss Mary Butts, Jericho; Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Munn, Mrs. L. L. Baker, Miss Helen Bailey, Mrs. L. A. Ackerman and children, Mrs. R. Holmington, Charles Munn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whiting and son of Johnson. Among the guests from out of town were: Hon. Heber Jackson and wife, Waterville; Mr. and Mrs. Erastus Hinds, Huntington; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Luce, C. F. Randall, W. F. Benson, Hon. C. R. Fleetwood, Dr. Geo. L. Bates, Edith L. P. Thayer, Morrisville; Miss Edith Wescott, Boston; Mrs. T. L. Scott, Youngstown, Ohio; Hon. N. B. Mower and wife, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Raymore, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Emery, Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Gray, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stearns, Dwight Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Allison Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Maxfield, Mr. and Mrs. Albert O'Brien of Eden; W. H. Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Hallett Hurlbut, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chaffee, Mr. and Mrs. Don Seaver and Horace Manchester of Johnson; Hon. and Mrs. Noyes Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Stevens, Mrs. E. C. White, Mrs. Roger Hubbard and Mrs. Ed. Lilley of Hyde Park.

Congratulatory letters were received from the following: Sen. C. S. Page, Rev. Wm. P. Hamlin and wife, Col. and Mrs. E. B. Sawyer, Col. and Mrs. H. M. McFarland, Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Lewis, Hyde Park; Mr. and Mrs. Seth H. Parker, Johnson; Hon. C. M. Palmer and wife, Jericho; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wheeler, Morrisville; Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith, Waterville; Rev. J. E. Bowman, Ipswich, N. H.; Rev. Lucius F. Paige and wife, Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Lulu Denner, West Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Vigeant, Cambridge, Mass.; Editor W. J. Bigelow, of the St. Johnsbury Caledonian; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Straw and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hosmer, Stowe.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Butts are natives of Stowe and spent practically all their life in their marriage in the town of their birth.

The couple were married at the Methodist parsonage at Waterbury Center on Sept. 20, 1866, by Elder George Whitney. The first few months of their married life were spent in Stowe and in January, 1867, they moved to a farm in Johnson, where they lived for five years before going to North Hyde Park to reside, in which village they have spent most of their 50 years of wedded life. They came to North Hyde Park in January, 1872, when they purchased the village hotel which they conducted successfully for about 25 years. By their courtesy, careful attention to the wants of their guests, and by giving the careful supervision necessary to run a model country hotel, they made it a favorite with the traveling public for years. During these 25 years Leland and Mrs. Butts practically rebuilt and greatly improved the hotel and made it one of the best in the state in a village the size of North Hyde Park. Since retiring from the hotel business he carried on a small farm and served as postmaster for about 15 years.

Both have been public-spirited and useful citizens who have contributed their full share towards the prosperity of their pretty little village and prosperous town.

Grace Church S. S. Subdivided.

At a Sunday school board meeting of the Grace Methodist Episcopal church, held Tuesday evening, it was voted to departmentize the whole school into the following departments: Beginners, primary, junior, intermediate and adult. After a thorough study of the matter and after consulting with authorities along these lines, it was found that this course was in harmony with the highest standards of Sunday school work. The new plan will group the members by ages in a department by themselves, each department being presided over by a superintendent.

Although the heads of departments have not been selected yet, it is expected that each division will be in full operation by October 8.

YOUTHFUL CATTLE DEALER

Earl Taylor, 11, Sells Cow He Raised and Invests in Hefers.

After selling one cow that he raised from a small calf, for $100 Earl Taylor 11 years of age, son of Frank E. Taylor of Waterford, decided the proposition paid, and invested the proceeds in two young heifers which he hopes will turn out as successful a speculation.

The sale of the cow started a few weeks ago when Dr. J. T. Herrick of Springfield, Mass., while motoring by the place where the cow was pastured, took a liking to the animal and negotiated with Mr. Taylor for it. Mr. Taylor said his young son was the proprietor of the cow and that Earl was the party to approach.

Although $100 sounded large, Master Earl decided an animal he had petted and fed for three years was worth more than the money, so refused.

Dr. Herrick who visited a few weeks in St. Johnsbury during the summer, went back later to open negotiations with Earl again. This time the sale was completed, and 10 days ago the cow was shipped to Dr. Herrick's place at Hyannis, Mass.

The calf which was of Hereford stock given to Earl to raise by Luman Ladd of Siles pond, when it was less than a year old. Earl had taken care of it for three years and it had become quite a pet. He is quite proud of his two new heifers and expects to turn his trade to advantage when an opportunity offers.

RECEPTION TO TEACHERS

Tendered By Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brooks at Boynton Ave. Home.

A reception was tendered the teachers of the public schools of St. Johnsbury, Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brooks at their home on Boynton avenue. The superintendent and directors of the schools and their wives were also present.

About 50 guests spent the evening with the hosts with charades and music. The pleasant time that was arranged by the host and hostess gave the new teachers an opportunity to get acquainted with each other and with the other teachers in town.

Delicious refreshments were served during the evening by Mrs. Brooks and the party broke up after spending a pleasant time.

Sailor Boy Speaks Well of Navy.

F. T. Courtney, an electrician aboard the U. S. ship Utah, is in town on sick leave and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Courtney on Clark avenue.

Mr. Courtney enlisted in the navy early last spring and in speaking of life in the navy he said: "The training received there is one that will either make or break the young fellow entering it, for while the life of the navy is clean and wholesome, yet there are outside influences coupled with certain characters that are in the navy which every ship that can lead a recruit to the lowest forms of baseness. But Mr. Courtney further said that the influences for good more than turn the scale that way, for with the Y. M. C. A. movement and other kindred movements aboard ships, the chance for athletic development, and the rigorous discipline of the navy will develop character in any young man with a mind to learn."

He also said, that not only was it his opinion, but also that of the men he had mingled with on shipboard, many of them who had served for many terms of enlistment, that a four year term of service in the navy for the young man who had completed school was the best preparation that could be found for entering any line of work. It gives a man the discipline needed to make him strong in mind and body, and a knowledge of men and people and lands that can not be gained in any other way.

In speaking of the seamy side of the sailor's life Mr. Courtney said, that the only time the citizens of the country see the sailor man is when he is on dress parade, or on visiting day when the ships are in harbor, which days are but holidays for the boys themselves, but the days that are spent in the drudgery of cleaning ships, drill and other times when things are not so pleasant never come to the public notice. He said, although the disagreeable things are largely in the majority, yet the United States navy is the greatest institution for training of mind and body that there is.

Parochial Schools' Enrollment.

The fall term of the parochial schools of St. Johnsbury has begun with as large an enrollment as has been had in recent years. The total attendance at the schools this year is nearly 400. The boys attending St. Gabriel's school on Cherry street number 180, and more are expected to enroll before the term is ended. One of the most successful years is expected at Mt. St. Joseph's academy, where there has been an enrollment this year of 200 girls. Both schools have been well equipped in all departments, and are capable of handling the large attendance efficiently.
